Christmas at St Peter's

Despite the scaffolding the Church looked beautiful for Christmas with the flower arrangers giving us a wonderful display as always. Thanks to them and all who cleaned, polished and decorated.

Nativity Sing Sunday brought several young families to sing the well loved carols and to decorate the Christmas tree, as well as to enjoying the mince pies and chocolates.

As always the Church was full for Christmas Eve Songs of Praise. The collection of £150.00 from this service was donated to 'One Roof' which is a small charity giving support to the homeless in Leicester and Leicestershire.

Many thanks to Anne, June and Mike for making all of our Christmas services so special

Christmas Carol Singing

A festive evening was enjoyed at the annual carol singing around the village on 20th December. With the kind generosity of all who encountered the singers, £206.25 was raised for Rainbows children's hospice. Special thanks to Helen Bennett and June Clayton for the most welcome refreshment stops, Jack Jordan, Will, Sam and Luke Hiorns for successful tin rattling, the carol singers and of course all who donated so willingly. This year's carol singing will be on Wednesday 19th December 2018 so pop it in your diaries now!
