

The Parish Church of St Peter's, Ashby Parva

Church News

The groups will be very informal so please feel free to swap between both and come to as many or as few as you wish. Following an opening prayer, chapters of Mark's Gospel will be read and discussed. The groups will end with a prayer and of course, tea, coffee and a chat will feature too!!! Any queries, please contact Betsy on 202553 or Pat on 202581/07891 511026.

Welcome to the New Bishop of Leicester

From our benefice, Ann Ling, Chrissie Taylor and David Beeson were privileged to be at the Cathedral for the installation of our new Bishop on 14th May. Three loud knocks on the Cathedral doors at 2.30pm announced the arrival of Bishop Martyn Snow having walked in procession from the Town Hall where he was publicly welcomed into the community. He entered the packed Cathedral for the formal part of the service including the anointing with oil, taking of oaths, receiving his Pectoral Cross, Cope and, when seated in the Cathedral (his special seat), the Diocesan Crozier (shepherd's crook). The second part of the service took place in the Cathedral Gardens including the Bishop's talk on 'party and prayer' and prayers led by children. It was a very memorable occasion.
