Benefice Walk

Twenty-three people and a dog met on the first rainy morning of the summer for the Benefice walk. After coffee and a short service they walked over the fields from Leire to Dunton Bassett where they stayed for lunch and another service, then onto Ashby Parva for Holy Communion and tea. It was a lovely opportunity to meet friends old and new and to appreciate our beautiful countryside. Thanks to the Williamsons and Chapmans for organising the walk and all who provided refreshments and hospitality along the way.
